CORONAVIRUS PRECAUTIONS ~ hands | face | space

The virus is still with us and, whilst there have been relaxations to the legally-required precautions, we have received guidance that encourages us to: sanitise hands, keep buildings ventilated and prevent the spread of infection by wearing face coverings in indoor settings where there are a number of people. At weekend Masses we have many people in the church, some of whom are vulnerable. All of us have a responsibility to keep them safe – so we ask you, if you can, to continue to wear face masks. We have re-opened all the pews to accommodate more people; please try to keep at least one metre from anyone who is not a member of your household; there is plenty of space to spread out.

SACRAMENT OF BAPTISM

This weekend we welcome Christia & Patrick Burke and Louie & Theodore Blackwell into the Church and pray that they and their families will grow in the knowledge and love of God within our faith community.

SACRAMENT OF CONFIRMATION

The Bishop will be visiting our parish on Wednesday 18 May and will celebrate Mass with the Sacrament of Confirmation that evening. If you are in Year 11 and would like to be prepared for Confirmation this year, please send Father Philip an email (or telephone the Parish Office) to register your interest. We will be in touch very soon to let you have the details of the preparation programme.

PARISH OFFERINGS

Last Sunday the Parish Offerings amounted to £621.77 (£367.00 of this was gift aided). The collection for Racial Justice Sunday came to £86.40 (gift-aided). Thank you for your generous and continued giving. In addition, Irene Manby's family asked that the collection taken after her Requiem be given to the parish; it came to £89.28.

THE LITURGICAL CALENDAR THIS WEEK . . .

Monday is the Memorial of St Peter Damian, Bishop and Doctor of the Church – an Italian eleventh century reforming Benedictine monk and cardinal. He was venerated as a saint soon after his death in 1072 and was proclaimed a Doctor of the Church in 1828.

Tuesday is the Feast of the Chair of St Peter – reminding us that the Bishop of Rome is the successor of St Peter and, as such, presides over the whole Church in love. He is the centre and focus of the unity of the Church, enabling it to be catholic, universal and orthodox – we share the faith and life of the Church of Rome, in communion with each other and God.

Wednesday is the Memorial of St Polycarp – according to Jerome, he was a disciple of the apostle John and became bishop of Smyrna. He died a martyr, bound and burned at the stake, then stabbed when the fire failed to touch him.

Pope Francis, from the Angelus Address, St Peter’s Square, 24 February 2019

This Sunday’s Gospel passage (cf. Lk 6:27-38) concerns a central point that characterizes Christian life: love for enemies. Jesus’ words are clear: “I say to you that hear, Love your enemies, do good to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, pray for those who abuse you” (vv. 27-38). And this is not optional, it is a command. It is not for everyone, but for the disciples, whom Jesus calls “you that hear”. He is well aware that loving enemies exceeds our possibilities, but this is why he became man: not to leave us as we are, but to transform us into men and women capable of a greater love, that of his Father and ours. This is the love that Jesus gives to those who ‘hear him’. Thus it becomes possible! With him, thanks to his love, to his Spirit, we are able to love even those who do not love us, even those who do us harm.

In this way, Jesus wants God’s love to triumph over hatred and rancour in every heart. The logic of love, which culminates in Christ’s Cross, is a Christian’s badge and induces us to meet everyone with the heart of brothers and sisters. But how is it possible to overcome human instinct and the worldly law of retaliation? Jesus provides the answer in the same Gospel passage: “Be merciful, even as your Father is merciful” (v. 36). Those who hear Jesus, who make an effort to follow him even at a cost, become children of God, and begin to truly resemble the Father who is in heaven. We become capable of things we never thought we could say or do, and of which we would have been rather ashamed, but which now give us joy and peace instead. We no longer need to be violent, with words and gestures: we discover that we are capable of tenderness and goodness; and we sense that all of this comes not from ourselves but from him! And thus we do not brag about it but are grateful for it.

There is nothing greater and more fruitful than love: it bestows all dignity to the person, while, on the contrary, hatred and vengeance decrease it, marring the beauty of the creature made in God’s image.

This command, to respond to insult and wrongdoing with love, has created a new culture in the world: “a culture of mercy” — we need to learn this well! And properly practice this culture of mercy — which “can set in motion a real cultural revolution” (Apostolic Letter Misericordia et Misera, 20). It is the revolution of love, in which the protagonists are the martyrs of all times. And Jesus assures us that our behaviour, inspired by love for those who do us harm, will not be in vain. He tells us: “forgive, and you will be forgiven; give, and it will be given to you” (vv. 37-38). This is beautiful. God will give us something beautiful if we are generous, merciful. We must forgive because God has forgiven us and always forgives us. If we do not forgive completely, we cannot expect to be forgiven completely. However, if our hearts are open to mercy, if we seal forgiveness with a brotherly embrace and secure the bonds of communion, we proclaim to the world that it is possible to overcome evil with good. At times it is easier for us to remember the harm they have done to us and not the good things; to the point that there are people who have this habit and it becomes a sickness. They are “collectors of injustice”: they only remember the bad things done. And this is not a path. We must do the opposite, Jesus says. Remember the good things, and when someone comes with some gossip, and speaks ill of another, say: “Yes, perhaps ... but he has this good quality...”. Turn the discussion around. This is the revolution of mercy.

MINISTRY ROTA

The full version of this rota is on the parish website, in the ‘Rotas’ section.

We have tried to include as many people as possible who were on the rota in ‘normal times’.

At present, we do not need as many Communion Ministers as Readers – this will only change when it is safe to restore the chalice.

If you have returned to Mass, are not on the rota and would like to be included – please let John know.

Readers and Communion Ministers should come to the Sacristy to sign in.
