Tuesday is the Memorial of SS John of Brebeuf, Isaac Jogues & Companions – these Jesuits were among the first missionaries to the Native American Indians, at whose hands they suffered martyrdom in the late 1640s.

Friday is the Memorial of St John Paul II – Karol Wojtyla, elected Pope on 16 October 1978, was born in Wadowice in Poland on 18 May 1920. No other Pope met as many people: more than 17.6 million pilgrims attended his Wednesday General Audiences and he met many millions more in the course of his pastoral visits in Italy and throughout the world. Pope John Paul II died in the Apostolic Palace on 2 April 2005. He was beatified in Saint Peter's Square on 1 May 2011 by Pope Benedict XVI, his immediate successor and was canonised by Pope Francis in 2014.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY : 24th October

The Catholic Church is, in essence, a missionary church. This is because Jesus left it as part of his legacy to us to continue what he himself had begun on earth. While very few of us are called to be directly active in the missionary field, all of us are asked to support the work of mission by prayer, and if possible financially. World Mission Sunday is the one day in the year when every catholic community, rich or poor, throughout the world is asked to contribute towards the work of the missionary church, especially where there is any sort of need be it spiritual or material. Please give whatever you are able. Thank you. Kate Welcome, Parish Missio Coordinator.

MINISTRY ROTA

The full version of this rota is on the parish website, in the 'Rotas' section. There are also hard copies available in the Sacristy for those who do not use the internet.

We have tried to include as many people as possible who were on the rota in 'normal times'.

At present, we do not need as many Communion Ministers as Readers – this will only change when it is safe to restore the chalice.

If you have returned to Mass, are not on the rota and would like to be included – please let John know.

Readers and Communion Ministers should come to the Sacristy to sign in.

READERS

1 = First Reading and Responsorial Psalm

2 = Second Reading and Gospel Acclamation

Jesus realizes that the other ten Apostles are angry with James and John, and thus show they have the same worldly mentality. And this offers him inspiration for a lesson that applies to Christians of all times, for us too. He says: "You know that those who are supposed to rule over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great men exercise authority over them. But it shall not be so among you; but whoever would be great among you must be your servant, and whoever would be first among you must be slave of all" (vv. 42-44). It is the rule of Christians. The Teacher's message is clear: while the great people of the Earth build themselves 'thrones' for their own power, God chooses an uncomfortable throne, the cross, from which to reign by giving his life: "the Son of man", Jesus says, "also came not to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many" (v. 45).
