PARISH HOG ROAST AND SAUSAGE FEST

Our thanks to all who helped with organising last Sunday's celebration: moving tables and chairs, cooking over 200 sausages and preparing various salads and serving the food and drink The Club provided the prosecco, with Kevin arranging buckets of ice and working behind-the-scenes to help make the event run smoothly. Our thanks also to the Giggly Pig Company (Harold Hill) for the Hog Roast and Hawkins the Butchers (Romford Shopping Hall) for their excellent Cumberland sausages. Every scrap of pork and every sausage disappeared!

If you would like to contribute to the Parish Presentation to Father Philip, to mark his Silver Jubilee, envelopes are still available on the shelves; if it is easier for you, they can be returned in the Offertory baskets at any Sunday Mass. If you are in the Gift Aid scheme, please write your number on the envelope. This is the final weekend for contributions.
