

SEASON OF CREATION STUDY DAY

During the 2021 Season of Creation, from 1st September to the feast of St Francis on 4th October, thousands of Christians on six continents will unite to pray and take action in defence of our common home www.seasonofcreation.org From the parish of Gidea Park we have organised a further study day – on Saturday 2 October from 11.00 to 12.30 – to explore the teaching of Pope Francis on the promotion of global solidarity (Fratelli Tutti). This study day, 'The Cry of the Poor' will be given by Fr Ashley Beck, associate professor at St Mary's University, Twickenham. For access to this free live stream event go to www.whatgoodnews.org No registration needed. The talk will be available subsequently on the same website.

- Keep to the new seating arrangements - sit wherever you can find sufficient space and leave at least 1 metre between yourself and people who are not members of your household.

In the coming weeks, we hope to resume serving at the altar – but for the moment, numbers will be restricted for each Mass and we need to arrange some training sessions, hopefully towards the end of September. Serving could commence from the beginning of October. To be a Server, you need to have received your First Holy Communion. For Saturday 6.30 pm and Sunday 11.30 am: we need teams of three Servers; Sunday 9.00 am: teams of five. If interested, please sign up on the list in the sacristy.

FATHERS' GROUP – Wednesday 22 September

Our first meet-up will take place at 7.30pm in St. Edward's Church Romford. For this meeting we will learn and pray the rosary in the church followed by informal refreshments in the community centre next door. Whether you are a new Dad or a battle-worn father of adolescents, or anywhere in between, you are most welcome. Christian fathers need support to flourish in this vocation. Do come along if you can.

Please bring rosary beads - I will also have some spare. Any questions, please email me, Colin Smith, at colinandvictoria@virginmedia.com

THE LITURGICAL CALENDAR THIS WEEK . . .

Monday is the Memorial of St John Chrysostom – his ‘surname’ was more of a nickname – meaning ‘golden mouth’ – a tribute to the constant high quality of his homilies. Although he was Archbishop of Constantinople, he died in exile in 407.

Tuesday is the Feast of the Exaltation of the Holy Cross – this ancient feast has been celebrated in the East since the fourth century and was adopted in the West three centuries later. It commemorates the recovery, by the Empress Helena (mother of Constantine), of the precious relic of the cross on which Jesus died. From the instrument used in that most infamous death, the cross has been transformed into the symbol of Christ’s glorification – Christ ‘loved the world so much’.

Wednesday is the Memorial of Our Lady of Sorrows – traditionally seven in number, the sorrows begin with Simeon’s words to Our Lady in the Temple: ‘A sword will pierce your own soul’ (Luke 2:35).

Thursday is the Memorial of SS Cornelius and Cyprian – Pope Cornelius and Bishop Cyprian lived and died for the Faith in the first half of the third century.

Friday is the Memorial of St Robert Bellarmine – a leader in the Church’s effort to recover from the Reformation, he lived from 1542 to 1621. He was a Jesuit who became Archbishop of Capua in southern Italy, and a Cardinal. His translated writings played a significant part in keeping the knowledge of the Faith alive in England and Wales during penal times.
