MISSIO

Many thanks to those of you who have supported Missio this year by your prayers and donations. I realise fully that at this time of financial uncertainty things are challenging for us all. Please continue to give whatever you can to support those worldwide who are fighting extreme poverty, exploitation and injustice. By giving you bring God's love and renewed hope to those most in need. There are brown envelopes at the back of the Church for anything you can give. Both small and large donations do add up and make a difference to those in desperate circumstances within our Church family. There are copies of the Autumn edition of Missio at the back of the Church. Help yourselves!

Kate Welcome, Missio Co-ordinator

THE LITURGICAL CALENDAR THIS WEEK . . .

Monday is the Memorial of SS Cosmas and Damian – these brothers lived in Cilicia, southern Turkey, between the third and fourth centuries. They were doctors who treated the sick without asking for payment, and both died as martyrs during the persecution of the Emperor Diocletian. In art, they are always depicted together, with containers of drugs and medical instruments. Patrons of doctors, surgeons, dentists, pharmacists, midwives, barbers and hairdressers; they are invoked against the plague, glandular inflammations, kidney problems, gallstones and distemper.

Tuesday is the Memorial of St Vincent de Paul – the SVP honours this saint by bearing his name. St Vincent founded the Vincentian Fathers and, also, shared in founding the world-renowned Sisters of Charity. He died in 1660.

Wednesday is the Memorial of St Wenceslaus – born in 907 near Prague, he was raised as a Christian by his grandmother and became Duke of Bohemia in 922 at a time of pagan and anti-German reaction. He met this with patience and tolerance but was assassinated in 929 at the door of the church at Stara-Boleslav by his brother Boleslav. He is patron of the Czech Republic. The incidents related in the carol 'Good King Wenceslaus' are fictional.

Thursday is the Feast of SS Michael, Gabriel and Raphael – each of these archangels plays an important part in sacred scripture and in the life of the Church. Their names are Hebrew: Michael meaning 'Who is like God?', Gabriel – 'Strength of God' and Raphael – 'The Healing of God'.

Friday is the Memorial of St Jerome – one of the Church's greatest scholars, he was the first to complete a translation of the Bible from Hebrew and Greek into Latin – by then the common (vulgar) language of the people – hence the name 'Vulgate Bible' (which was for centuries the standard Latin version of the Bible used by the Church. He died at Bethlehem in 420.
