NOVEMBER - MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

November is the month when we especially remember our dead and their influence on us, the living. We also pray for them and offer Masses for the repose of their souls in the eternal life of God. Our custom here, for many years, is to leave the names of our loved ones before the altar throughout the month. Envelopes for this purpose are available in the porch; please place them in the offertory baskets, put them through the letter box at Church House or hand them in to the sacristy.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY : 24th October

The Catholic Church is, in essence, a missionary church. This is because Jesus left it as part of his legacy to us to continue what he himself had begun on earth. While very few of us are called to be directly active in the missionary field, all of us are asked to support the work of mission by prayer, and if possible financially. World Mission Sunday is the one day in the year when every catholic community, rich or poor, throughout the world is asked to contribute towards the work of the missionary church, especially where there is any sort of need be it spiritual or material. Please give whatever you are able. Thank you. Kate Welcome, Parish Missio Coordinator.

THE LITURGICAL CALENDAR THIS WEEK . . .

Tuesday is the Memorial of St Cedd – and his brother Chad became monks of Lindisfarne and bishops. They evangelised the Midlands and afterwards, Cedd was made bishop of the East Saxons here in Essex – his tiny cathedral still stands at Bradwell-on-Sea. He founded abbeys at Tilbury and Lastingham in Yorkshire. In his old age he retired there (and died) under monastic obedience.

Thursday is the Feast of SS Simon and Jude – in the New Testament, Simon is only referred to in the lists of apostles as the 'Zealot'. The traditions concerning his career after the Resurrection are conflicting and nothing is known about his life. In art, he is sometimes depicted as being sawn in half lengthways – presumably the method of his martyrdom. Jude was the brother of James the Less and was, therefore, related to Jesus. One of the letters in the New Testament is attributed to him. The traditions concerning his later life are confused and unreliable, including the one that he was martyred in Persia with Simon; this has led to them sharing their feastday. Jude is the patron of difficult or hopeless cases or problems (read his brief letter in the New Testament - the reason for this will become clear).

Next Sunday is the (transferred) Solemnity of All Saints – not all saints have official world-wide feastdays, many are celebrated only in particular regions or localities – such as St Sebbi, St Anne Line and St John Payne, three of the saints of this diocese. All Saints' Day honours these, and all those (not only canonised saints) who 'now see, love and enjoy God for ever' in heaven.

COLLIER ROW CATHOLIC CLUB

The talks and discussion take place on Zoom from 4.00 - 5.00 p.m. on a Sunday afternoon. The next talk will be on 24 October and the question being explored is "What is the universal call to holiness?" Fr Adrian Lowe, assistant priest at Our Lady of Lourdes, Wanstead, will consider this question. If you would like to join this discussion, please forward a contact email to adultformationvicariate@dioceseofbrentwood.org For more information about The Thresholds of Hope Questions go to www.thresholdsofhope.co.uk

MINISTRY ROTA

The full version of this rota is on the parish website, in the 'Rotas' section.

There are also hard copies available in the Sacristy for those who do not use the internet.

We have tried to include as many people as possible who were on the rota in 'normal times'.

At present, we do not need as many Communion Ministers as Readers – this will only change when it is safe to restore the chalice.

If you have returned to Mass, are not on the rota and would like to be included – please let John know.

Readers and Communion Ministers should come to the Sacristy to sign in.
