NOVEMBER – MONTH OF THE HOLY SOULS

November is the month when we especially remember our dead and their influence on us, the living. We also pray for them and offer Masses for the repose of their souls in the eternal life of God. Our custom here, for many years, is to leave the names of our loved ones before the altar throughout the month. Envelopes for this purpose are available in the porch; please place them in the offertory baskets, put them through the letter box at Church House or hand them in to the sacristy. Any offerings you make will help to provide Masses for the Holy Souls, celebrated during November and throughout the year.

CHILDREN'S LITURGY during Sunday Mass at 11.30 am

The Children's Liturgy of the Word, which takes place during the Mass at 11.30 am, has had to be suspended. We urgently need volunteers to train as catechists to lead this Liturgy, which is primarily for children who are at school but have not yet received their First Holy Communion. After many years' service, the existing team are stepping down as they have other family priorities. They will be available to train and support any who feel they could take on this responsibility. Please contact Catherine on 07980 808317 or Father Philip if you are able to help.

Pope Francis, extracts from the Angelus Address, St Peter's Square, 25 October 2020

In today's Gospel passage (cf. Mt 22:34-40), a doctor of the Law asks Jesus "which is the great commandment" (v. 36), that is, the principal commandment of all divine Law. Jesus simply answers: "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind" (v. 37). And he immediately adds: "And a second is like it, You shall love your neighbour as yourself" (v. 39).

Jesus' response once again takes up and joins two fundamental precepts, which God gave his people through Moses (cf. Dt 6:5; Lv 19:18). ... This is one of the primary innovations of Jesus' teachings, and it helps us understand that what is not expressed in love of neighbour is not true love of God; and, likewise, what is not drawn from one's relationship with God is not true love of neighbour.

Jesus concludes his response with these words: "On these two commandments depend all the law and the prophets" (v. 40). This means that all the precepts the Lord has given to his people must be related to love of God and neighbour. In fact, all the commandments serve to implement, to express that twofold indivisible love. Love for God is expressed above all in prayer, particularly in adoration. We neglect the adoration of God a great deal. We recite the prayer of thanksgiving, the supplication to ask for something ..., but we neglect adoration. Adoring God is precisely the heart of prayer.
