THE GENERAL ELECTION

The Catholic Bishops of England and Wales have launched a set of informative resources to help us think about our election choices. It covers pro-Life issues as well as the criminal justice system, education, poverty, the environment, refugees and migrants. The Bishops remind us: "We are not merely the passive recipients of politics but active citizens. An election is the best time for us as Christians to speak out, to get involved, and to lead." The resources include suggested questions for candidates, links if you want to go deeper, and action we can take to make a difference. Go to <https://www.cbcew.org.uk/election24/>

PARISH OFFERINGS

Last weekend your Parish Offerings amounted to £938.33 (£602.00 of this was gift aided). The collection for Day for Life raised £218.10 (of this, £195.29 was gift-aided). Thank you for your continuing support for the life and ministry of our church and its community.

PETER'S PENCE ANNUAL COLLECTION – next weekend

MISSIO RED BOX HOLDERS

Emptying Red Boxes: we can be fairly flexible about when this is done. This time of year, the half-way point, might be a time to take an envelope (they are in the porch), empty your box and return the contents in the next week or two. The middle of December is the final emptying – ready for the year end Parish Totals. You can always empty your box at any time – especially if it is full!

"Mission Today" the summer edition is available in the porch – please take a copy. There are spares for anyone who is interested in finding out about the impact Missio is making in the wider Church.

MUSIC DURING HOLY COMMUNION

This weekend we hear a setting of the hymn in honour of the Blessed Sacrament, "Panis angelicus", by the French composer César Franck (1822-1890).

Panis angelicus fit panis hominum: Dat panis caelicus figuris terminum:

O res mirabilis! Manducat Dominum pauper, servus, et humilis.

The bread of angels becomes the bread of men. The heavenly bread given a reality beyond symbols.

O marvellous thing! The poor, lowly and humble man eats his Lord.

THE LITURGICAL CALENDAR THIS WEEK . . .

Monday is the Solemnity of the Nativity of St John the Baptist – we recall how, after the Annunciation, Mary went to visit and stay with her cousin Elizabeth. About three months later, this good woman, the wife of Zachary, gave birth to John the Baptist. This ancient festival celebrates that happy event.

Thursday is the Memorial of St Cyril of Alexandria, Bishop and Teacher of the Faith – a man who was hampered by an extreme intolerance and a quarrelsome nature, which he conquered to become a most patient pastor and a merciful judge of heretics. He lived c 380-444.

Friday is the Memorial of St Irenaeus, Bishop, Teacher of the Faith and Martyr – a second century Bishop of Lyons and one of the most important theologians of his time; a true 'servant of the Lord'. One of his most famous sayings: "The glory of God is man, fully alive".
